

Great Teen Books

FOR ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS

Firewall

by Sean Rodman

Josh is a gamer who copes with his parents' divorce by playing Killswitch online. Then he discovers a version of the game that is an exact reproduction of his new town and strange things happen.

Impossible

by Jocelyn Shipley

Jemma witnesses a drive-by shooting but is afraid to speak up because it would mean revealing that she left her infant daughter alone.

The Ruined City

by John Wilson

Together, Howard and Cate travel through time and space, avoiding lurking monsters in a quest to find the three fragments of the golden mask and prevent it from falling into the wrong hands.

Overdrive

by Eric Walters

Jake challenges another driver to a street race and causes an accident. Jake leaves the scene, but finds he cannot pretend it didn't happen and struggles with deciding on the right thing to do.

Alibi

by Kristin Butcher

Christine wants to help her aunt by catching the thief who has been targeting a small tourist town.

continued on back

Above All Else

by Jeff Ross

Del tries to figure out who is responsible for injuring his teammate when winning takes priority on the Cardinals soccer team.

Back

by Norah McClintock

After serving time for a violent crime, Jojo returns to the neighborhood and tries to take his life back.

In Plain Sight

by Laura Langston

Megan learns that her father is a convicted terrorist and that her mother has been living under an assumed name for fifteen years.

Kicker

by Michele Martin Bossley

When electronic threats and sabotage seem set to derail the soccer season, Izzy and Julia have to find out the truth.

The Shade

by K. L. Denman

As if her sister's wedding wasn't enough, now Safira has a ghost to worry about.

Breaking Point

by Lesley Choyce

Escaping from a wilderness camp for young offenders, Cameron and Brianna end up in a struggle for survival.

Bluford High (Series)

by Anne Schraff

A group of teens at Bluford High School face problems and challenges in their lives.

